

Dr. OSMAN NURİ BEYHAN

Dr. OSMAN NURİ BEYHAN, Chief Commercial Counsellor at the Embassy of the Republic of Türkiye in Bern since February-2022. In his capacity, he is responsible for the commercial and economic relations between Switzerland and Türkiye. Before being assigned to this post, he had worked at several positions with different responsibilities within the governmental institutions and Ministries. He had worked at Undersecretariat of Turkish Prime Ministry for Customs between 2000-2012 as an Expert on the EU Affairs; He had worked at the Ministry of Customs and Trade between 2012-2014 as “Head of Department for External Relations”; He had also worked at the same Ministry as “Deputy Director General for the External Relations and the EU Affairs” between 2014-2018, and he had worked at the Ministry of Trade between 2018-2022 as “Deputy Director General for International Agreements and the EU Affairs.

Mr. Beyhan represented Türkiye in several International and multilateral forums such as UN, WTO, WCO, EU Commission, etc. He holds a Bachelor’s Degree on International Relations from Ankara University, Faculty of Political Sciences (Ankara/Türkiye); A Master’s Degree on Economics from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign (USA). He earned his PhD from Ankara Hacı Bayram Veli University (Ankara/Türkiye). Title of his PhD Thesis is: “The Effects of International Decisions Taken to Combat Climate Change on the Economic Security of Developing Countries from the Perspective of Copenhagen School Security Approach”.